

Copenhagen Economics are pleased to invite you to Case Competition 2016 at Uppsala University.

The Case Competition offers a unique opportunity to learn about life as a consultant at the leading economics consultancy in the Nordic region. It is also a chance to show us your interest and skills, and to get first in line when we recruit new consultants.

At the event you will

- get to solve a challenging case with your peers
- be introduced to Copenhagen Economics
- learn about working-life as an economics consultant

The Case Competition will be held on the 23/2 from 13.15-16.00 in A138 at Ekonomikum, Uppsala University.

To apply, please send an email to lillit.ottosson@gmail.com by February 16. Applications are made individually, and we accept applications from students with 1-2 years left of their studies in economics.

Copenhagen Economics is the leading economics consultancy in the Nordic region. We have approximately 40 employees at offices in Copenhagen, Stockholm, and Brussels. We provide independent and effective consulting services based on recognised research methods – particularly within regulation, competition, energy & climate, auctions, international trade, and socio-economic impact assessments. For more information, please visit www.copenhageneconomics.com

Copenhagen Economics is dedicated to maintaining high academic standards in an attractive working environment. We are enterprising team-players, striving to combine the best economics skills with intuitive, clear communication. Hence, working at Copenhagen Economics requires you to use and refine the skills that you have attained during your studies – and to acquire new skills in order to provide outstanding advice to our clients.